

The Healthcare- NOW! SiCKO-cure Road Show is coming to Bloomington!

When: Wednesday, November 14, 2007

The Road Show will be traveling the U.S. in support of guaranteed national health insurance. This country's health system is sick and in need of a cure. Let's do all we can to support the Road Show and its message of Health Care for All - Everybody IN - Nobody OUT!

Here's what happening when the Road Show is in Bloomington:

- 10:30 AM meeting with Congressman Baron Hill's staff at 320 W. 8th Street, Suite 14, Showers Building. Join the bus outside while the delegation deliberates.
- Noon outreach at the Indiana University campus. Help us bring the message to students and University staff!
- 4 PM rally at County Courthouse Square- on Kirkwood between College and Walnut Sts., joining forces with Hoosiers for a Common Sense Health Plan, Bloomington Peace Action Coalition, White River Central Labor Council and Indian Creek volunteer firemen who don't have health care. Featuring Kiwi, Ude and the Oral Minority Band.

DON'T MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY TO GET INVOLVED AND SHOW YOUR SUPPORT OF GUARANTEED NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE!
